Purchasing Policy

MJ Wilson strive to be a thoughtful & diligent role model in our industry and for our community. Where ever possible we seek partners that share our values and commitment in delivering excellence in People, Product, Process & Price
Our Guidelines for responsible purchasing are as follow:

Environmental conservation

Which we define as the maximum amount of use from the minimal amount of resource and energy, the uses of renewable resources and the reduction of waste throughout the supply chain.

Human Rights

Which we define as justifiable rights and believe to belong to every person. We value companies that are transparent in there companies workplace and practices and committed to continuous improvement in everything they do.

Local Sourcing and Community building

Which we define as sourcing goods products and services locally

Data -GDPR

To ensure our suppliers' compliance with GDPR requirements we will:

Map the flow of personal data through supply chains and identify the recipients and subprocessors of personal data.

Identify and review existing supplier agreements that involve the processing of personal data.

Review the risks in existing and new contracts in respect of GDPR requirements.

Carry out due diligence on new suppliers in respect of the measures that they have in place for GDPR compliance and ensure that our contracts with suppliers include the rights of audit.

Ensure that our insurance policies and our suppliers' insurance policies cover data protection and security breaches.

Ensure that MJ Wilson and our suppliers and have processes in place to satisfy the 72-hour breach notification requirement.
